

Making Cambridge English: First work in my school Tips on preparing for the *Cambridge English: First

- for teachers new to the Cambridge English: First -

Online-Seminar

on Wednesday, 8 February 2012, from 4.30 to 5.30 pm (Central European Time)

This one-hour seminar will look at some of the basics involved in preparing students for the Cambridge English: First (formerly known as First Certificate in English (FCE)). The exam focus is on communicating in practical, real-life contexts, making the exam a positive experience for the candidates. Preparing for the First helps students develop all-round language competence at the B2 level of the Common European Framework and beyond. The presenter will briefly introduce the exam, show you examples of classroom activities and give tips for developing students' language skills at this level.

This seminar is designed for teachers without experience in preparing pupils for Cambridge English exams. The seminar is free of charge and places are limited. Please register by 31 January 2012 by e-mail to info@cambridgeesol.de and state at which school you are teaching. You can also register online at www.cambridgeesol.org/events.

We are looking forward to meeting you online!
